By action of the city council Tuesday evening, there will be five different park sites offered to the voters at the general election in April. And it will be optional with the voter whether he or she shall vote for one, or all, or none, or against all. It will require two-thirds vote on any park site to carry it. If the people want parks, the opportunity for securing them will thus be provided. With the exception of the Stearns-Allen tract, which has been withdrawn, all the tracts selected by the various mass meetings are included in the budget, but each tract will appear separately on the ballot instead of as a unit. In this manner only the vote cast on each separate tract is counted, and the total vote on parks is immaterial so far as carrying any particular tract is concerned. The prices of the various tracts, including improvement indebtedness, have not yet been ascertained, but will no doubt be published next week.

New Postal Order

The new order of the Postmaster General is of much interest to the public. It reads:

Letters and postcards may be dispatched whether or not any postage is prepared thereon. Other articles such as parcel post, books and papers shall not be dispatched unless prepared in part. But in all cases of insufficient prepayment, double the amount of the deficiency in postage will be collected from the person to whom the articles are addressed. The opinion of no prepayment or of part prepayment of postage does not apply, however, to either letters or other articles mailed with the apparent intention of avoiding prepayment.

Formerly if a letter or other article was received without postage it was held at the mailing office until postage was received. On account of the double rate of postage, every one should take care to see that the full amount of the postage is prepaid.—Exchange.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!!

STOP at the Polls Saturday and vote. Before doing so, however, consider for a moment if the policy of "No Politics" but "Good Service" wouldn't be a pretty reasonable proposition for you to support. Then LOOK your ballot over carefully and you will find that E. W. Angell is Republican candidate for Recorder. Right here is where you can assist in securing "Good Service" by placing an X opposite his name.

LISTEN! "Good Service" means exactly what the words imply, and the "motto" was learned in the best of all business schools—the railroad. The public rightly expected it from you, and the railroad required it. Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Voters, suppose you help the good cause along, then watch for results.
E. W. Angell.

I Cannot Vote At All

I shall not vote for Mrs. Briggs. I do not like her gown; And I remember well the digs I got from Clara Brown. Jemina Patterson Magree Shall get no vote of mine; A horrid, stuck-up thing is she. And also I do decline To vote for Anastasia Bunce. I fairly boil with rage When I recall that more than once She lied about my age. And Mabel Jones and Agnes Carr And Clementina Ball, I'll scratch, because they never are "At home" the days I call. I cannot vote, you understand, For Agelina Pratt, Because she isn't stylish, and She wears a last year's hat. Oh, goodness me! That brings me Through the list. This ballot's small. There's no one left. What shall I do? I cannot vote at all! —Springfield Union.

"PIONEER MERCHANTS"

Sportsmen's League

Delegates from organizations of sportsmen in all parts of the state will meet at Portland Monday, March 16th, to form a State Association. There are now 54 clubs of hunters and fishermen in Oregon, and the ready responses received from these clubs indicate that there will be a full representation of all sportsmen at the convention.

The overwhelming majority of the sportsmen are in favor of the protection of fish and game, and the improvement of the game resources of the state. It will be the purpose of the State Association to work along the lines of game protection, to agree upon legislation in order to bring that about, and to exert the united influence of the sportsmen of the state to procure the passage of such legislation. The objects which the organized sportsmen have in view are particularly close to the heart of each angler and hunter, because of the fact that the game protection and propagation is created by the license fees paid by them. There is said to be a feeling that Sportsmen's fund has not always been used to best advantage, and that at times its disbursement has been influenced by motives other than the furtherance of the fish and game resources of the state.

It is thought that the State Association, which probably will be known as the Oregon Sportsmen's League, will adopt a system which will give to each club in the state belonging to the League one vote in the affairs of the League, irrespective of the membership of the club or the number of delegates sent by the club to the convention. The purpose of this is to prevent the domination of the affairs of the League by a few of the stronger clubs.

Among the entertainment features proposed for the delegates are a trapshot and fly casting tournament on the day preceding the convention, and a beefsteak dinner at the close of the convention, followed by motion pictures of a special interest to sportsmen.

ONE OF THE QUIANT LITTLE COATS NOW SO MODISH

These odd little coats with their flaring bottoms and high pointed collars are among the most practical modes that have been brought out for many a day. They can be worn with almost any skirt or dress appropriately, providing the colors harmonize. It is smart to have this little coat of plaid for use with plain skirts and vice versa.

On many of these coats, the yoke effect in back extends over the shoulders and the sleeves are attached; some are in kimono effect, others have the regular set-in sleeve.

No. 8198-7855 shows a coat of duvetyne and a skirt of plaid novelty goods. The novelty fabrics may be had in several widths and average in price from 75 cents a yard and up.

This costume may be made in size 36 with 2 1/2 yards of 42 inch material for the coat ($1.98) and for the skirt (75c) 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. In 30 1/2, a very chic little one-piece dress is shown; it has the peg-top skirt, the yoke blouse with drop shoulder and although the main decorative effect is obtained from the design of the flowered crepe, yet two convenient patch pockets on each side of the skirt add to the result.

In size 36 this dress requires 4 1/2 yards of 42 inch material.
No. 8189—size 34 to 42.
No. 7855—size 22 to 38.
No. 8094—size 34 to 42.
Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.
